Gouvernement-Asylum for the Lepers. — In September 1897 the lepers were transported from Batavia to Great Chatillon, Batavia having been considered too far off, and too dangerously attained. The Governor being very anxious about the matter (for the lepers were very much attached to Batavia) addressed himself to His Lordship the Bishop, asking him to order his Clergy in Batavia to help the Governor in this way. The petition was very kindly granted and His Lordship the Bishop, together with the Clergy, accompanied the lepers from Batavia to their new home.

Academy of the Immaculate Conception, OLDENBURG, INDIANA.

THIS ACADEMY, under the entire control of the Sisters of St. Francis, is situated in the unique, happy little town of Oldenburg, which itself is peacefully nestled in a beautiful and salubrious valley, located near the southwestern border of Franklin County.

THE ACADEMY BUILDINGS, all fire-proof, rank among the best constructed in the country, and are fitted out most elegantly for educational purposes. Neither has been overlooked in the various departments of science, art and physical culture, any feature conducive to the health, comfort, happiness and progress of the students. The entire structure is heated by steam and lighted by electricity and gas.

An extensive, well-selected and graded LIBRARY is open to the students for reading and reference matter. This Library, and the MUSEUM already containing large and fine collections in Botany, Conchology, Geology, Mineralogy, etc., will be remodeled and greatly enlarged.

THE GROUNDS, appropriately and cozily ensconced by an artistically constructed wall, present every inducement for healthful and pleasant exercise, while the flowers, shrubberies and trees, fascinating the minds of the students, urge them on to the botanical study and enable them to watch the workings of nature step by step from the very germ to its maturity. The neighboring fields and forests, the hills and valleys, the creeks and brooks also, are extensively drawn upon as aids to the schoolroom.

THE DISCIPLINE is mild yet firm. Special attention is given to the strict cultivation of morals and manners. The art of Christian self-control, this angel of peace and sweet content, is ever held out as the one necessary companion in life's combat.

All the branches of a THOROUGH ENGLISH and CLASSICAL EDUCATION are taught according to the best approved systems and methods.

THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT is conducted on the plan of the best classical European Conservatories.

THE ART COURSE offers superior advantages in its various phases.

Every variety of PLAIN AND FANCY NEEDLEWORK is taught.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH, Lincoln, Ill., Dec. 6, 1904,

THE HINNERS ORGAN CO.

Gentlemen:—I am glad to be able to inform you that the two-manual organ furnished by you for the new St. Patrick's Church here is an admirable instrument, and fulfills all expectations. Mr. Wilhelm Middleschulte, of Chicago, who dedicated it last week, said it was as fine an instrument, for its size, as he ever played upon.

Respectfully yours,

To All Whom It May Concern:—It is with special pleasure that I can state that I am perfectly satisfied with the organ the Hinners Organ Co. of Pekin, Ill., erected in my church. A number of fine organists have tried it, and all pronounce it the best finished mechanically and the best voiced organ in the two cities of Kansas. I consider that I have received full value for my money and am pleased to know that everybody in my parish is pleased with the organ.

The purity of wine can only be certified by the maker. He who goes in the open market to purchase wines, especially Altar wines, cannot knowingly say his wines are pure, as he knows little who has had the handling of them, and knows still less about their ingredients. In this respect the Brotherhood Wine Co. has an enviable position, as they have produced Altar Wine since 1865. All of our Altar Wines are produced under the careful personal supervision of our Vice-President and the General Manager of our Altar Wine Department.

Good Cigars

for Clergy or Laity.

Our cigars are particularly good—every one is made of strictly pure, well cured tobacco and is an enjoyable smoke.

Many of the discriminating smokers of our cigars are gentlemen of the Catholic clergy, and we would also like to add your name to our list of satisfied patrons.

Here's a nice looking and good cigar illustrated, our famous "Royal Puritano." We are almost positive that it will suit your taste. It's a leader in its class and we sell it at $5.00 the hundred, express prepaid—and at that price it's equal, if not better, to any 10-cent cigar on the market.

More than 50 other brands ranging in price from $2.00 per 100 to $15.00 per 100, are shown in our new catalogue, just out. Shall we send you one?

Refined smokers all over this broad land prefer Alvarez cigars because of their purity and delicate flavor. They are made by expert workmen, in a factory as clean as your own dining-room.

We absolutely guarantee every brand as strictly first-class and reliable cigars, and this guarantee has no string to it. Many prominent dealers, clubs, etc., handle our cigars as their leaders.

Send us a trial order, subject to approval. If for any reason you're dissatisfied, send back the cigars at our expense.

But you'll keep the cigars when you get them. We've no fear about that, because they are exactly as represented.

Express charges prepaid on all shipments of 100 or more cigars to any point in the United States.

Send us an order to-day, or let us mail you our catalogue.

French

Italian

Can you SPEAK and UNDERSTAND any language except your mother tongue? Would it not be useful to be able to converse in one or all of the above languages? It would surely be a source of much pleasure to you as long as you live.

Without drudgery, inconvenience or loss of time you can learn to converse fluently in any one of the above languages in three months' time. It is a pleasant recreative amusement to learn a foreign language by the method perfected by

INTERNATIONAL. PHONOGRAPHIC LANGUAGE SCHOOLS.

The only practical way to learn any language is to HEAR IT SPOKEN. It is the natural method, identically that by which we learned our mother tongue.

Nearly 20 per cent. of our population are foreign born. It is therefore a constant and valuable FINANCIAL ASSET to be able to CONVERSE in a FOREIGN LANGUAGE. It is, too, a financial asset on which the ASSES- SOR never levies a TAX. Then, too, many of the finest treasures of the literature of the world lie buried beyond the reach of all of us unacquainted with French, German, Spanish and Italian.

The Spanish War, our relations with the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico, Mexico and the Panama Canal, have opened wide and diversified fields of effort and employment. The young man or woman who can speak Spanish is already equipped with a WORKING CAPITAL of large earning power.

For more than a century the study of a foreign language was well nigh intolerable drudgery. Many years of the closest application were necessary before the student could read a foreign language; and in the end he was utterly unable to speak or understand it. The method was wrong; that was the secret; the upper story of his language structure was built before the foundations were put in.

Realizing the inadequacy of old methods, INTERNATIONAL PHONOGRAPHIC LANGUAGE SCHOOLS called into conference a number of the foremost educators and linguists of the world, and after months of patient and careful study, and a consideration of the subject from all points of view, the method used by these schools throughout the country was finally adopted. The result has been a complete revolution in language study.

Old methods have become obsolete; educators, schools, colleges and classes are daily testifying to the marvelous and hitherto unattainable results attending this method. It is in no sense an experiment; years of substantial results have furnished an actual demonstration of its unequalled merits.

The results are accomplished by devices which excite both the wonder and admiration of all linguists and teachers. The unpleasant rasping sound of the ordinary phonograph has been eliminated by recent inventions and our MARVELOUS INDESTRUCTIBLE LANGUAGE RECORDS, which are heard through our wonderful CLARAPHONE listening device.

All that is said above is less than the whole truth. *But WE are interested to convince you. The persons whose letters follow, have no such interest. Thousands of clergymen and persons in other professions and in business in all parts of the country have learned to converse in the languages we teach with but a few months' study, and every minute of the time spent in "study" was a delightful recreation. One cannot fail to learn by our method.

FROM ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE, KIRKWOOD, MO.

International Phonographic Language Schools, Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen: Our Professors are unanimous in pronouncing favorably concerning the Language Method purchased from you. Your system renders the acquisition of a "working knowledge" of the language studied comparatively easy, rendering it veritably a "living language" to the earnest student. I trust your system will have the wide circulation it so well deserves.

Yours faithfully,

REV. WM. M. CARROLL.

....I have studied German by your method about fourteen weeks, devoting from one-half to one hour each day to study. I can read, write and converse in German with fluency and accuracy, and I hasten to commend this system to any one interested in language study.

H. C. WAKEFIELD, M. D., Marine Hospital, St. Louis.

....It is beginning to be of great value to me in my practice, and I have no difficulty in conversing with my German patients.

J. W. SMITH, M. D., St. Louis.

The French, German and Spanish courses of the I. P. L. S. purchased by us are now in use in our school, and we have formed classes in accordance with the plans suggested by you. The scholars who have been taking lessons from the machines are very much gratified with the results, and each succeeding lesson bears evidence of the ease and rapidity with which a language may be learned by this method.

Sincerely yours,

SISTER M. AQUIN, Directress, Academy of the Visitation, Cabanne, Mo.

....I have no hesitation in stating that your system is far more practical in every way than any other method of instruction within my knowledge. In fact, I am so well pleased with the clear and perfect pronunciation, evidently made by masters of the different languages, and so well convinced of the practicability of the method as a whole, that I have ordered complete courses in French, German and Spanish for my son who is attending college in New York.

JAS. H. FOY, A. M., L. L. D., Principal Shields School, St. Louis, Mo.

My experience enables me to state conscientiously that this system is far in advance of former methods under which I studied other languages. The distinctness of the phonographic pronunciation enables the student to obtain the correct articulation. I would like to see this method universally adopted.

REV. J. J. M'GLYNN, Pastor St. Rose's Church, St. Louis.

To any person inquiring for further particulars by reason of this announcement we will forward full information and allow a very liberal reduction from the regular price.

Modern CHURCH WINDOWS Semi-European

In addition to our European "German" style windows we respectfully call the attention of the clergy to what we term Semi-European style as per cut of window on this page. The figure and tracery parts are brought out in the European style, in Antique glass, and the balance in American Opalescent glass. This style of work costs considerable less and still makes up very artistic windows, ecclesiastical in every respect, and the combination of Opalescent glass gives a great opportunity to display fine color effects.

Our Mission style, in all Opalescent glass with the exception of the emblems or busts, with ornamental base and canopy, makes inexpensive windows, still gives very good results.

We take pleasure in referring you to the following churches for which we have furnished figure windows during the year 1905:

Annunciation, Denver, Colo.

Rt. Rev. Mgr. H. Robinson.

St. Joseph's, Krebs, Ind. Ter.

Rt. Rev. M. B. Murphy.

St. Cecelia's, Baltimore, Md.

Rev. E. C. Gynn.

Sacred Heart, Nacogdoches, Tex.

Rev. Theo. Dreis.

St. Patrick's, Clinton, Iowa.

Rev. J. A. Murray.

St. Patrick's, Memphis, Tenn.

Rev. D. J. Murphy.

St. Teresa, Beresford, S. D.

Rev. J. J. O'Neil.

St. Joseph's, Joliet, Ill., Rev. F. Sustersic.

St. Casimir's, Plymouth, Pa., Rev. A. Smelz.

St. John the Baptist, Plattsmouth, Neb., Rev. W. F. Bradley, V. F.

St. Joseph's Retreat, Dearborn, Mich., Sisters of Charity.

Designs from our portfolio sent for inspection upon application, also special designs made for any of these styles required, upon receipt of approximate size and shape of windows.

Received Medals and Honors at Columbian, California Mid-Winter and Trans-Mississippi Exposition and Grand Prize Louisiana Purchase Exposition. Correspondence solicited.
